

Donor Privacy Policy

EMERGE Community Development is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. EMERGE values our donors and respects the privacy of the personal and organizational information that we are privileged to acquire. Our commitment to privacy includes how we obtain, use, protect, and share information.

Information Collected: EMERGE collects and maintains:

- Contact information, such as name, organization, mailing address, phone number, and email address;
- Giving history;
- Information on events attended, interactions, mailings and e-communications received;
- Payment information, such as credit card number, expiration date and billing information; and
- Requests to receive periodic updates, including newsletters and fundraising appeals.

How Information is Used: EMERGE uses donor information when it is voluntarily provided to us for the following purposes:

- Recording and acknowledging gifts;
- Communicating program updates and sending invites to events;
- Understanding donors' interest in our mission;
- Analyzing overall giving patterns; and
- Completing donation transactions. Credit card information is only used for donation processing and is not retained once the transaction is completed.

List Sharing

EMERGE does not sell, rent or lease donor information to other organizations. Use of donor information is limited to the internal purposes of EMERGE.

To review or correct your personal contact information or to make changes to your recorded preferences (i.e. receipt of mailings and acknowledgements), please contact the Advancement Team by phone at (612) 529-9267, by email at development@emerge-mn.org or by mail to:
